

DISCOVER OLD MONTREAL THROUGH STORYTELLING

A private tour even a teenager might enjoy!

What was life like in the early decades of Montreal?

Join me on a three-hour journey through time in the historic centre with its exquisite architecture, cobblestone streets and old-world charm. You'll meet the "First Family of Montreal", a canine hero, a trailblazing teacher and "matchmaking facilitator", plus learn about the origins of Notre Dame Basilica.

Enjoy stories you likely won't find in guidebooks and retrace the steps of the men and women who, in the 17th century, shaped New France and Montreal, today the largest French-speaking city on the continent.

Meeting point: Pointe-à-Callière Museum, 350 Place Royale

Available in a 2- or 3- hour format

Extra: It is possible to skip the line and visit the interior of the church for an additional 10 CAD fee.
