

ST. PAUL STREET : A SURPRISE ON EVERY CORNER

What do Leonard Cohen, Charles Dickens and Yoko Ono have in common? Find out on this fun and eye-opening stroll along Montreal's oldest and possibly most eclectic street located in the old town.

See some sights that even locals don't know about. You'll discover awe-inspiring heritage buildings, art galleries, designer boutiques, and hidden gems tucked away here and there.

This tour covers a lot of ground, so you can truly soak in the romantic ambience and European flavour of Old Montreal.

Available in a 2- or 3-hour format

Meeting point: Notre Dame de Bonsecours Chapel, 400 St. Paul Street East