

SHERBROOKE STREET: THE GRANDE DAME OF MONTREAL

This has long been my favourite street downtown because of the fabulous architecture, the Museum of Fine Arts, high-end shopping and its air of sophistication.

Sherbrooke Street has something for everyone: grand hotels, museums, public art, elegant mansions, McGill University's sprawling and lush campus, luxury apartments and fossils--yes, fossils!

Join me in admiring some of the treasures of one of Montreal's longest and most diverse streets.
